AN ACT to provide for the development of irrigation and for related matters.

Establishment

1. Establishment of the Irrigation Development Authority

- (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the Irrigation Development Authority.
- (2) The Authority is a body corporate with perpetual succession and shall have a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.
- (3) Subject to a limitation imposed on it by this Act relating to its functions, the Authority may purchase, acquire, manage or dispose of movable or immovable property and may enter into the contracts and transactions that are expedient.
- (4) Where there is a hindrance to the acquisition of property under subsection (3), the property may be acquired for the Authority under the State Property and Contracts Act, 1960 (C.A. 6) or the State Lands Act, 1962 (Act 125) and those Acts shall apply with respect to the acquisition with the modifications that are necessary to provide for the vesting of the property acquired in the Authority and for the cost of the acquisition to be defrayed by the Authority.

2. Functions of the Authority

The functions of the Authority are,

- (a) to formulate plans for the development of irrigation;
- (b) to develop the water resources of the country for irrigated farming, livestock improvement and fish culture;
- (c) to execute comprehensive programmes for the effective use of irrigated lands in co-operation with any other agencies involved in providing extension services to farmers;
- (d) to carry out land-use planning in areas earmarked for development in order to conserve the soil and water resources in those areas;
- (e) to lay out the environs of each project area for housing purposes and for the provision of any other social amenities;
- (f) to co-operate with any other agencies for safeguarding the health and safety of the population living within and around irrigation project areas;
- (g) to undertake any other activities that are incidental or conducive to the performance of its functions under this Act.

3. The Board

- (1) The governing body of the Authority is a Board consisting of
 - (a) the chairman,
 - (b) the chief executive appointed under section 6,
 - (c) the chief executive of the Volta River Authority or the representative of that chief executive,
 - (d) one representative each of the Office of the President and of the Ministries of Agriculture,

Finance and Economic Planning, not below the rank of Director,²⁽²⁾

- (e) one representative of the Water Resources Research Unit of the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research,
- (f) one representative of the Soil Research Institute of the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research,
- (g) one representative of the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Ghana, Legon,
- (h) one representative of the Ghana Water and Sewerage Corporation, and
- (i) two prominent irrigation farmers.

(2) The members of the Board shall be appointed by the President in accordance with article 70 of the Constitution.

4. Tenure of office of members of the Board

(1) The chairman and the other members of the Board, other than the chief executive, shall hold office for a period of two years.

(2) A member of the Board may resign the appointment by notice in writing to the President.

(3) Where the office of a member becomes vacant otherwise than as a result of the expiry of the term of office or if a member is incapacitated by absence from the Republic, illness or any other sufficient cause from performing the functions of office, the President may appoint another person to hold that office.

(4) A person appointed to act in the place of a member under subsection (3) shall cease to hold office on the date when the person in whose place the office is held would have ceased to hold office in accordance with this Act, or when the President is satisfied that the incapacity of the person in whose place the office is held has terminated whichever is earlier.

(5) A person, on ceasing to be a member of the Board, is eligible for re-appointment.

5. Qualifications for appointment as members

A person is not qualified to be appointed, or to continue to be, a member of the Board if that person,

- (a) having been declared insolvent or bankrupt under a law in force in the Republic or in any other country, that person is an undischarged insolvent or bankrupt;
- (b) is of unsound mind or incapable of carrying out the duties of office;
- (c) is guilty of serious misconduct in relation to the duties of office;
- (d) is convicted of a felony or any other offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude and in each case has not been granted a free pardon;
- (e) in the case of a person in possession of a professional qualification, is disqualified or suspended otherwise than at the request of that person from practicing the profession in the Republic or in any other country by order of a competent authority made personally in respect of that person.

6. Chief executive and deputy chief executives

(1) The chief executive shall, subject to subsection (2), be appointed by the President in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution for a period of five years and on the terms and conditions determined by the President.

(2) A person shall not be appointed the chief executive unless that person has a degree in any of the related fields, of irrigation for agricultural purposes with not less than fifteen years of proven professional experience of which at least five years must have been in an administrative capacity.³⁽³⁾

(3) Subject to this Act and to the general control of the Board on policy matters, the chief executive is charged with the direction of the business of the Authority, its administration and organisation and control of employees of the Authority.

(4) The chief executive shall be assisted by two deputy chief executives, one of whom is an engineer and the other an agronomist.

(5) Where the chief executive is incapacitated from the performance of functions under this Act, the Board may authorise any of the two deputy chief executives to perform those functions for the duration of the incapacity.

7. Meetings of the Board

(1) The Board shall meet at least once in every three months at the places and times determined by the chairman.

(2) The chairman shall preside at meetings of the Board, and in the absence of the chairman a person elected by the members present from amongst themselves shall preside.

(3) The quorum at a meeting of the Board is six.

(4) Unless otherwise provided, the decisions at meetings of the Board shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes of members present and in the case of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(5) The members of the Board shall be paid in respect of attendance at meetings of the Board, the transport, subsistence and any other allowances determined by the Board, with the prior approval of the President.

(6) The Board may co-opt a person to attend a meeting of the Board as an adviser but a person co-opted shall not vote on a matter coming before the Board for decision.

(7) The validity of the proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy amongst the members or by a defect in the appointment of a member.

(8) A member of the Board who has an interest in a company or an undertaking with which the Authority proposes to make a contract or has an interest in a contract which the Authority proposes to make, shall disclose in writing to the Board the nature of the interest and is disqualified, unless the Board otherwise directs, from participating in the deliberations of the Board on the contract and is in any case, disqualified from voting on a decision of the Board concerning the contract.

(9) A member who contravenes a provision of subsection (8) ceases to be a member of the Board.

Administration

8. Funds of the Authority
