ACT 542
LEGAL AID SCHEME ACT, 1997(1)

AN ACT to re-enact the Legal Aid Scheme Law, 1987 (P.N.D.C.L. 184) to ensure the effective operation of the Scheme; to bring the provisions in respect of the Scheme in consonance with the Constitution and to provide for related matters.

Establishment of Legal Aid Scheme

1. Establishment of Legal Aid Scheme

There is established by this Act the Legal Aid Scheme.

2. Persons entitled to legal aid

(1) For the purposes of enforcing a provision of the Constitution, a person is entitled to legal aid in connection with the proceedings relating to the Constitution if that person has reasonable grounds for taking, defending, prosecuting or being a party to the proceedings.

(2) A person is entitled to legal aid

(a) if that person earns the Government minimum wage or less and desires legal representation in

(i) a criminal matter; or

(ii) a civil matter relating to landlord and tenant, insurance, inheritance with particular reference to the Intestate Succession Act, 1985(2), maintenance of children and any other civil matters as prescribed by Parliament; or

(b) if in the opinion of the Board that person requires legal aid.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, legal aid consists of representation by a lawyer, including the assistance given by a lawyer, in the steps preliminary or incidental to proceedings or arriving at or giving effect to a compromise to avoid or to bring an end to proceedings.

3. Legal Aid Board

Subject to this Act the Scheme shall be administered by the Legal Aid Board.

4. Composition of Board

(1) The Board consists of

- (a) one Justice or a retired Justice of the Superior Court of Judicature as the chairman of the Board,
- (b) the Attorney-General or the representative of the Attorney-General,
- (c) one representative of the General Legal Council,
- (d) the Director of Legal Aid,
- (e) one representative of the Ghana Bar Association,
- (f) the Director of Legal Education,
- (g) the Controller and Accountant-General or the representative of the Accountant-General,
- (h) four other persons, one of whom is the Director of the Department of Social Welfare or the representative and one female lawyer, and
- (i) one representative of the Inspector-General of Police.

(2) The members of the Board shall be appointed by the President acting in consultation with the Council of State.

5. Functions of the Board

The Board is responsible for

- (a) developing a comprehensive legal aid programme and policy to be carried out throughout the country,
- (b) supervising the general administration of the legal aid programme, and
- (c) approving the selection of lawyers for participation in the legal aid programme without prejudice to the right of an applicant to have a lawyer of the applicants own choice.

6. Tenure of members of the Board

(1) The members of the Board shall hold office for three years and are eligible for re-appointment.

(2) A member of the Board may resign from office in writing addressed to the President through the Minister.

(3) Where the office of a member of the Board becomes vacant before the expiration of the term or if for any other reason that member is unable to perform the functions of office, the Minister shall notify the President who shall, acting in consultation with the Council of State appoint another person to complete the unexpired term of office.

(4) A person appointed to complete the unexpired term of a member may after serving the unexpired term be appointed a member of the Board.

7. Allowances for members

Members of the Board shall be paid the allowances determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for Finance.

8. Meetings of the Board

(1) The Board shall meet at least once every three months for the despatch of business at the times and at the places determined by the chairman.

(2) The chairman shall on the request of not less than one-third of the membership convene a special meeting of the Board.

(3) The quorum at a meeting of the Board is six members.

(4) The chairman shall preside at the meetings of the Board and in the absence of the chairman a member of the Board elected by the members present from among their number shall preside.

(5) Questions before the Board shall be decided by a simple majority of members present and voting.

(6) The chairman shall have a casting vote.

(7) The validity of the proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy among its members or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

(8) A member of the Board who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without sufficient cause ceases to be a member.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the Board shall regulate the procedure for the conduct of its meetings.

9. Committees of the Board

The Board may for the performance of its functions appoint committees of the Board comprised of members of the Board or non-members or both and may assign to them any of its functions as it may determine except that a committee composed entirely of non-members may only advise the Board.

Regional Legal Aid Committees

10. Regional Committees continued in existence

(1) There shall be established in each Region, a regional legal aid committee.

(2) A regional legal aid committee is answerable to the Board.
