ACT 517
NATIONAL DISASTER MANAGEMENT ORGANISATION ACT, 1996(1)

AN ACT to establish a National Disaster Management Organisation to be responsible for the management of areas affected by disasters and similar emergencies, for the rehabilitation of persons affected by disaster and to provide for related matters.

Establishment of the Organisation

1. Establishment of the Organisation

- (1) There is hereby established a National Disaster Management Organisation.
- (2) The Organisation shall have offices at the national regional and district levels.

2. Object and functions of the Organisation

- (1) The object of the Organisation is to manage disasters and similar emergencies in the country.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the Organisation shall
 - (a) prepare national disaster plans for preventing and mitigating the consequences of disaster;
 - (b) monitor, evaluate and update national disaster plans;
 - (c) ensure the establishment of adequate facilities, technical training and the institution of educational programmes to provide public awareness, warning systems and general preparedness for its staff and the general public;
 - (d) ensure that there are appropriate and adequate facilities for the provision of relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction after a disaster;
 - (e) co-ordinate local and international support for disaster or emergency control relief services and reconstruction; and
 - (f) perform any other functions that are incidental to its functions.

3. Membership of the Organisation and qualification of members

- (1) The Organisation consists of
 - (a) professionals, experts, consultants, officers and employees of public institutions and non-governmental organisations; and
 - (b) the volunteers who were registered under this Act.
- (2) A person who is not less than sixteen years of age and is resident in the Republic may volunteer to register as a member of the Organisation.
- (3) An application for registration shall be made to the National Security Council or to any other person directed by the Council and shall be in the form and contain the particulars that the Council shall direct.

(4) The Organisation may make use of any resource and service of a member.

4. Governing body of the Organisation

- (1) The governing body of the Organisation is the National Security Council.
- (2) The Council is responsible for determining the policies of the Organisation.

5. Terms and conditions

Membership of the Organisation is subject to the terms and conditions determined by the Council.

6. Ministerial responsibility

The Minister responsible for the Interior is responsible for the Organisation.

Disaster Management Committees

7. Committees of the Council

(1) The Council may for the purposes of this Act appoint the committees that it considers necessary and may assign a function of the Organisation to a committee.

(2) A committee may consist of members of the Council or non-members or both.

8. National disaster management co-ordination committee

(1) Without prejudice to section 7, there is hereby established a national disaster management committee, consisting of,

- (a) the Minister responsible for the Interior as the chairman,
- (b) one representative each from
 - (i) Ministry of the Interior,
 - (ii) Ministry of Finance,
 - (iii) Ministry of Health,
 - (iv) Ministry of Manpower Development and Employment,
 - (v) Ministry of Media Relations,
 - (vi) Ministry of Local Government and Rural Development,
 - (vii) Ministry of Defence,
 - (viii) Ministry of Environment, Science and Technology,
 - (ix) Ministry of Transport and Communications,
 - (x) National Development Planning Commission, and
- (c) the national co-ordinator of the Organisation who shall be the secretary to the Committee.

(2) The Regional Minister of the Region where a disaster has occurred shall be a member of the national committee for the duration of the disaster.

(3) A person below the rank of a chief director shall not be appointed a representative of a Ministry under this section.

9. Meetings of the national committee

(1) The national committee shall meet at least once in every three months at the times and places determined by the chairman.

(2) The chairman shall preside at the meetings of the national committee, and in the absence of the chairman one of the members of the committee elected from among their number shall preside.

(3) The national committee may co-opt a person to act as adviser but a co-opted person does not have a right to vote.

(4) The proceedings of the national committee shall not be invalidated by a vacancy in its membership or a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this Act the national committee shall regulate the procedure for its meetings.

10. Functions of the national committee

The national committee

- (a) is responsible for the implementation of national policies on disasters;
- (b) shall ensure an effective flow of information on disasters between the national, regional and district capitals;
- (c) shall assess the event of a disaster, the extent of damage and the needs for the affected areas and report to the Council;
- (d) shall co-ordinate regional and district disaster management plans and activities;
- (e) shall identify, receive, manage and supervise relief items;
- (f) shall investigate reports and analyse the nature of hazards, vulnerability and risk situations in particular areas and ensure the operational readiness of regional and district disaster management committees in those areas;
- (g) shall collect and preserve data on disasters in the country;
- (h) shall take steps to ensure the efficient training of organised personnel and any other persons available for emergency or disaster duties;
- (i) shall compute, for the benefit of the Council, the necessary requirements for the effective running of the Organisation each year; and
- (j) shall disseminate information to educate the public on
 - (i) the human activities most likely to cause environmental disasters in the country;
 - (ii) the hazards and natural disasters which are likely to affect the various regions in the country;
 - (iii) action to be taken in the event of a disaster of whatever nature; and
 - (iv) the control and relief measures most likely to be taken by the Republic and the necessity for everyone to co-operate with the authorities on these occasions.

11. The national co-ordinator

(1) The Organisation shall have a national co-ordinator who shall be appointed by the President in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution.

(2) The co-ordinator shall hold office on the terms and conditions specified in the letter of appointment.

(3) The President shall, in making the appointment of the co-ordinator, consider the integrity, knowledge, expertise and experience of that person and in particular that person's knowledge in matters relevant to the functions of the Organisation.

(4) The co-ordinator is the chief executive of the Organisation and is responsible, subject to the directions of the Council or of the national committee, for the day-to-day management of the affairs of the Organisation.

(5) The co-ordinator is responsible for the control of the employees of the Organisation.

(6) The co-ordinator may delegate a function of the co-ordinator to an employee of the Organisation subject to the conditions imposed by the national co-ordinator but the co-ordinator is not relieved from ultimate responsibility for the performance of the delegated function.

12. Regional and district co-ordinator

(1) The Organisation shall have regional and district co-ordinators who shall be appointed by the President in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution.

(2) The regional and district co-ordinators shall be in charge of the head office of the Organisation at the regional and district levels and perform the functions determined by the Council or the national committee.
