REPUBLIC OF GHANA
ACT
OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA ENTITLED
TECHNICAL UNIVERSITIES ACT, 2016

An Act to provide for the establishment of Technical Universities; to provide for the conversion of polytechnics to Technical Universities and to provide for related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT:

PASSED by Parliament and assented to by the President:

Technical Universities

Establishment of Technical Universities

1. (1) The institutions specified in the First Schedule are established as Technical Universities.

(2) A Technical University established under this Act is a body corporate with perpetual succession.

(3) Where there is a hindrance to the acquisition of property, the property may be acquired for the Technical University under the State Lands Act, 1962 (Act 125) and the cost shall be borne by the Technical University.

Requirements for conversion of a polytechnic to a Technical University

2. (1) The Council of a polytechnic listed in Part 2 of the First Schedule that intends to be converted to a Technical University and meets the requirements set out in the Second Schedule, shall apply in writing to the Minister through the National Council for Tertiary Education.

(2) A Technical University that may be established after the coming into force of this Act that is not covered by this Act shall meet the requirements set out in the Second Schedule.

Aims of a Technical University

3. (1) The aims of a Technical University are to provide higher education in engineering, science and technology based disciplines, technical and vocational education and training, applied arts and related disciplines as the Council of the Technical University may, in consultation with the National Council for Tertiary Education determine in accordance with the following principles:

(a) higher education shall be made equally accessible to all persons suitably qualified and capable of benefiting from education and training offered at a Technical University;

(b) programmes of study shall take into consideration the multiplicity of scientific theories and methodologies;

(c) use competency based and practice oriented approach in teaching, organisation and delivery of courses;

(d) develop strong linkages and collaboration with relevant industries, businesses, professional bodies and technical experts in the design and delivery of programmes;

(e) offer programmes and courses within the mandate of a Technical University; and

(f) provide opportunities for technical and professional skills development, applied research and publication of research findings.

(2) A Technical University, for the purpose of achieving its aims, shall have schools, faculties, institutes, departments and centers approved and accredited by institutions responsible for tertiary education and accreditation.

Powers of a Technical University

4. (1) A Technical University may

(a) award degrees including honorary degrees, diplomas, certificates and other qualifications agreed upon by the Council established under section 5;

(b) offer Higher National Diploma programmes

(i) approved by the National Council for Tertiary Education;

(ii) accredited by the National Accreditation Board; and

(iii) examined and certified by the National Board for Professional and Technician Examinations.

(c) provide for the general welfare, recreational and social needs of staff and students of a Technical University; and

(d) exercise powers that are incidental to the achievement of the aims of a Technical University.

(2) A Technical University may withdraw a degree, diploma or certificate it has awarded if it has evidence that proves that

(a) the degree, diploma or certificate was obtained through fraud, academic malpractice; or

(b) the process of acquiring the degree, diploma or certificate was tainted by an act that in the opinion of the Technical University undermines the integrity of the award.

Administrative Provisions

- (o) perform any other function that are ancillary to the aims of that Technical University.

Establishment of committees

7. (1) For the purpose of achieving the aims of a Technical University, the Council may establish standing or ad-hoc committees made up of members or non-members of the Council and assign to the committee functions that the Council considers appropriate.

(2) A committee of the Council comprising both members and non-members shall be chaired by a member of the Council.

(3) A committee comprised entirely of non-members shall be advisory.

Tenure of office of members of the Council

8. (1) A member of the Council other than the Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a term of three years and is eligible for re-appointment for another term only.

(2) Where a member of the Council is absent from three consecutive meetings without reasonable cause, the office of that member shall become vacant.

(3) A member of the Council other than the Vice-Chancellor may at any time resign from office in writing addressed to the President through the Minister.

(4) Where the office of a member becomes vacant

(a) under subsection (2), (3) or section 10(2); or

(b) by reason of the death of a member,

another person nominated by the relevant body shall be appointed by the President for the unexpired term of the office.

Meetings of the Council

9. (1) The Council shall meet at least three times in each academic year for the despatch of business at the time and in the place determined by the chairperson.

(2) The quorum at a meeting of the Council is eleven members of that Council, including at least four external members to the Technical University.

(3) The chairperson of the Council shall preside at each meeting of that Council and in the absence of the chairperson, members of that Council shall elect one external member present to preside.

(4) Matters before the Council shall be decided by a simple majority of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(5) The Council may co-opt a person to attend a Council meeting in an advisory capacity but the person shall not vote on a matter for decision at the meeting and the presence of that person shall not count in the constitution of a quorum.

(6) The Pro Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, and the Director of Finance of a Technical University shall attend meetings of the Council but are not entitled to vote.

(7) The proceedings of a Council are not invalidated by reason of a vacancy among the members or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

Disclosure of interest

10. (1) A member of the Council who has an interest in a matter for consideration at a meeting of that Council shall

(a) disclose the nature of the interest and the disclosure shall form part of the record of the consideration of that matter;

(b) request to be recused from the meeting; and

(c) not participate in the deliberations of the Council in respect of the matter.

(2) A member ceases to be a member of the Council, if that member has an interest in a matter before that Council and

(a) fails to disclose that interest, or
